NM044: PUIN+HOOP + HERMAN WILKEN + COEN OSCAR POLACK - DE OBJECTIEVE LACH

RELEASE: DECEMBER 8 2010

FORMAT: LIMITED CD IN HANDMADE SLEEVE

Hot on the heels of their new album Door Puin + Hoop present a full-length recording of a live-collaboration with Herman Wilken and Coen Oscar Polack. The occasion for the performance was the opening on February 26 2010 of the yearlong, evolving exhibition The Object Lag in De Nieuwe Vide gallery in Haarlem, The Netherlands. The trio of Puin + Hoop - Roald van Dillewijn, Remco Verhoef, Erik Uittenbogaard - collaborated with Wilken and Polack in a structured improvisation.

Puin + Hoop assembled their huge collection of electronic sound makers, guitars, Korg MS-20 and electric piano for this performance, Herman Wilken played laptop computer, iPhone and effects, Coen Oscar Polack played laptop computer, saxophone and effects. The result was a very concentrated performance, lasting 105 minutes. For De Objectieve Lach these recordings have been edited down to an hour of stunning, slowly blossoming music.

Hi-res photos of the performance and a hi-res version of the artwork can be downloaded from:

With this release Narrominded gives more body to its catalogue of improvised music. The most prominent release in this vein so far is the third Split LP featuring works by Dutch pianist Cor Fuhler and Swedish saxophonist Mats Gustafsson. In 2010 more improv-based music has seen the light of day through Narrominded, on releases by Het Fukking Licht, Puin + Hoop and the Dutch/Croatian noise-improv project Quasi Quasi.
